tions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Inflammation.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion of Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:-
Indisposition to Exercise, Loss of Power, Loss
of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak
Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wake-
fulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot hands, Flushing of the body, Dryness of
Skin, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance,
These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which
this medicine invariably removes, soon follow
Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,
In one of which the Patient may expire.
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "Fetid Discharges."
"Insanity and Consumption"
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering,
but none will confess the records of the insane
system, and melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The Constitution once affected with Organic Weakness requires the aid of medicine to
strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmhold's Extract Buchu invariably does.
A trial will convince the most skeptical.

FEMALES - FEMALES - FEMALES.
In many affections peculiar to females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy,
as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Pain-
fulness, or Suppression of Menstruation, Excesses

corrhoea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from

to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, alleviating pain and inflammation, so frequent in
the "ins of diseases and expelling all "poisonous discharges and warm-out matter."
Thousands upon thousands who have been the Victims of Quacks, and who paid "heavy
fees" to be cured in a short time, have found that they were deceived, and that the "Poison" was
by the use of "powerful" medicines, "seen and felt" in the system, to break out in an aggravated
form and perhaps after Marriage.

THE MAIDEN'S PRAYER.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

She rose from her delicious sleep,
And put away her soft brown hair,
And, in a tone as low and deep
As love's first whisper, breathed a prayer;

Like a sweet snow-dale, soft and mute;
Her snow-white hands together pressed,
Her blue eyes sheltered in the lid,
The folded linen on her breast

Just swelling with the charms it hid.
And from her long and flowing dress Escaped a bare and snowy foot,
Whose step upon the earth did pass
Like a sweet snow-dale, soft and mute;

And then from slumbers cheste and warm,
Like a young spirit fresh from heaven,
She bowed that young and matchless form;
And humbly prayed to be forgiven.

Oh, God! if souls as pure as these Need daily mercy from Thy throne -
If she upon her bended knees,
Our holiest and purest one -

She, with a face so clear and bright,
We deem her some stray child of light;
If she, with these soft eyes and tears,
Day after day in her young years,

Must kneel and pray for grace from Thee,
How hardly if she win not heaven,
Will our wild errors be forgiven!

Miscellaneous.
Americans in Russia.

Mr. Sibley the president, and Mr. Collins, the engineer, of the overland telegraph line to Europe via Bherings Straits and the Amoor are in Russia in furtherance of this great enterprise, and receiving marked attentions from the Emperor. On the occasion of their presentation, which took place at his favorite palace of Tsarokoeiski, twenty miles from St. Petersburg, the grand master of ceremonies introducing them a grand entertainment was given, at which all the great notables and dignitaries were present. At the entertainment, the order of precedence was, after the ambassadors
of France and Turkey, given to the distinguished Americans; and at the depot
where the guests who had come out from the city were to take carriages for the palace, the royal carriages were in waiting, and after the ambassadors above mentioned, the precedence was accorded to the two Americans. One of the emperor's ministers proposed to occupy the third carriage, but was obliged to fall back and another carriage was brought up with a splendid pair of dapple grey horses, richly caparisoned, drivers and footmen in royal liveries, and the announcement given, "carriage for the Americans."

The marked attentions of the emperor towards Messrs Sibley and Collins have produced great wonder at the court. It is said that no such attentions have been shown to private citizens from any country before during the reign of this emperor. These distinguished marks of his favor are no doubt intended as a compliment to our country in return for the kind reception given the Russian fleet, recently, in our waters. The emperor told Mr Sibley, in the course of his conversation with him, that he had just returned from Nice, where he had seen the ships of the returned fleet, and had learned from the officers the great kindness of our people to them. At the palace, a suite of three rooms, fitted up in the most sumptuous style of royal magnificence, were devoted to the exclusive use of the Americans.
At the Emperor's private theater in the palace, the same marked attentions were paid them by giving them the best seats.
Mr Collins is forming a corps of engineers to be sent to Arkoutsh to explore the coasts of Siberia and the eastern side of the straits. The enterprise is proceeding with such rapidity that the cable to be used for crossing the strait has been already ordered in England. Two vessels loaded with materials have been sent to San Francisco, and two others will be sent to the sea of Okhotsk early in the spring. It is thought that the greatest difficulties will be met with in the northern part of the American continent from

the Indians, but it is said by some visitors to these regions that these Indians are of a peaceful character. Mr Sibley proposes to place the stations at short distances from each other, and to keep up
amicable relations with the savage tribes
by means of gifts. The same obstacles were presented after the construction of the line to San Francisco which passes
over large tracts inhabited by Indians.
The company has been continually on good terms with them, and what seems very strange is the fact that, while the Indians have been at war, and carrying on their slaughter and devastation, they have never destroyed the telegraphic communication. The Indians have a superstitious reverence for it and call it the work of the great spirit. The enterprise will be prosecuted with the greatest energy, and when accomplished will be one of the greatest works of the age, and one of the most beneficial to the progress
of civilization.

Oil Item.
Petroleum has been found in Crawford county, Indiana, and a company has been offered $1,000,000 for its recently purchased lands. The Kentucky Legislature is chartering companies enough to bore
the whole State. No smoking is allowed near the oil wells. The Coquette well in Pennsylvania averages 640 barrels per day. An unprecedented quantity of oil is awaiting shipment to market. The Atlantic and Great Western Railroad carried 588,178 barrels in ten months
last year. The Noble well, recently dried produced 1,500 barrels per day at one time, making over $3,000,000 for somebody: There are over 2,000 derricks
with steam engines around Oil City, Pa.
Boring has commenced in Ashtabula
county, Ohio.

A Prediction Verified.
Ten years ago William H. Seward gave utterance to this prediction: "Slavery
must disappear from this continent, and you and I may live to see it." For uttering it he was denounced as a fanatic and "visionary." Many even of his own friends thought that his judgment was clouded by his enthusiasm. They could not believe that a revolution so tremendous could take place in so short a time.
- Albany Journal.

A "Hoss Car" Adventure.
Artemus Ward is looking at things, in Boston. He had an adventure one day,
which resulted as follows:
I returned in the Hoss Car, part way.
A poity girl in spectacles sat near me,
and was telling a young man how much
he reminded her of a young man she used to know in Wattham. Poity soon the young man got out, and smilin' in a seductory manner, I said to the girl in spec-acles: "Don't I remind you of somebody
you used to know?"
"Yes," she said, "you do remind me of one man, but he was sent to the Penitentiary for stealin' a barrel of mackerel - he died there, so I conclud you ain't him."
I didn't pursue the conversation.

ABSENCE OF MIND. - "Old Bum,
blebec" was the cognomen of Mr T., of N.-. He gained the title from the fact of his catching a bumble-bee one day as he was shingling his barn, and in attempting to destroy the insect with the hatchet,
cut off the ends of his thumb and fore-
fingers, letting the insect go unharmed.
He once ran through the streets with his hat off and his hands something like
three feet asunder, held before him, begging the passers-by not to disturb him,
as he had got the measure of a doorway
with him.

"Fifteen States have thus far ratified
the anti-slavery amendment to the Constitution, and only one has rejected it.
- An Irishman, who was once on a journey said he never liked to see tables
full of books and newspapers where he stopped at night, "for" said he, "I can never find any whisky at such places."
A shrewd inference.

A great teper who had drank nothing stronger than brandy all his life called for a goblet of water on his death bed, saying: "When a man is dying he ought to make up with his enemies."

The son of old John Brown, which has been "marching on" for some time past, is said to have started on the double quick, since the passage of the constitutional amendment.

The Valley Herald.

O. A. WARD - Editor and Publisher.

Chaska, - - - Minnesota

Saturday March 4 1865.

TO THE PUBLIC.

—Wm. B. Griswold having secured a competency during the year past that he has had charge of the Herald Office, with the issue of the last number, retired to private life to enjoy in peace and quietude the fruits of his arduous labor.

With the present number we again resume the publication of the "Valley Herald" and shall endeavor to merit a continuance of the patronage that was so cheerfully extended to us when we first started the enterprise of publishing the paper nearly three years since.

Our aim will be, to make the Herald as good a local paper as can be found in the state; to note events that are transpiring daily in this county and vicinity, and to record the progress of those from among us who with our noble army are fighting for the preservation of the Union, our liberty and freedoms.

To do this we need the co-operation of every citizen, not only with your name, but with words of encouragement, advice, and such items of news as may come to your notice, that we may know you feel an interest and desire to sustain a good home paper.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature adjourned yesterday having been in session sixty days the full length of time for which they can draw their per diem stationery and other emoluments at the expense of the state. In looking over the proceedings of that body we find but few new acts of general interest. There has been more than the usual amount of special legislation for the benefit of the members, and their numerous friends, as well as a great number of amendments to laws which have never been tested; but have been remodelled from year to year until scarcely a vestige of the original remains.

We would suggest that the next legislature repeal what has been enacted during the past winter, and then adopt the Statutes of some of the older states.

This course would be much cheaper, and better for the community generally.

FACTS ABOUT THE SEVEN THIRTIES.

We would call attention to the advertisement in another column of the 7-30 loan, and commend to our readers the following facts clipped from the N. Y. Examiner: "As to their security, nearly all active credits are now based on Government securities, and banks hold them as the very best and strongest investment they can make. If it were possible to contemplate the financial failure of the Government, no bank would be any safer. If money is loaned on in liquid notes or bonds and mortgages, it will be payable in the same currency as the Government pays with, and no better. The Government never has failed to meet its engagements, and the national debt is a first mortgage upon the whole property of the country. While other stocks fluctuate from ten to fifty per cent Government stocks are always comparatively firm. Their value is fixed and reliable, beyond all other securities; for while a man's special investments rise and burst, as a rule they are never below par, and are often above.

ITS LIBERAL INTEREST.—The general rate of interest is six per cent, payable annually. This is seven and three-tenths, payable semi-annually. If you lend on mortgage, there must be a searching of titles, lawyers' fees, stamp duties and delays, and you will finally have returned you the same kind of money you would receive from the Government, and less of it. If you invest in this loan, you have no trouble. Any bank or banker will obtain it for you without charge. To each note or bond are affixed five "coupons" or interest tickets, due at the expiration of each successive half-year. The holder of a note has simply to cut off one of these coupons, present it at the nearest bank or Government Agency, and receive his interest; the note itself need not be presented at all. Or a coupon thus payable will everywhere be equivalent, when due, to money. If you wish to borrow ninety cents on the dollar upon the notes you have the highest security in the market to do it with. If you wish to sell, it will bring within a fraction of cost and interest at any moment. It will be very handy to have in the house.

IT IS CONVERTIBLE into a six per cent, gold-bearing bond. At the expiration of three years a holder of the notes of the 7-30 Loan has the option of accepting payment in full or of funding his notes in six per cent, gold-interest bonds, the principal payable in not less than five, nor more than twenty years from its date, as the Government may elect. These bonds are held at such a premium as to make this privilege now worth two or three per cent, per annum, and adds so much to the interest. Notes of the same class, issued three years ago, are now selling at a rate that fully proves the correctness of this statement.

ITS EXEMPTION FROM STATE OR MUNICIPAL TAXATION.—But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress Exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average this exemption is worth about two per cent, per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

IT IS A NATIONAL SAVING'S BANK.—While this loan presents great advantages to large capitalists, it offers special inducements to those who wish to make a safe and profitable investment of small savings. It is in every way the best Saving's Bank; for every institution of this kind must somehow invest its deposits profitably in order to pay interest and expenses. They will invest largely in this loan, as the best investment. But from the gross interest which they receive, they must deduct largely for the expenses of the Bank. Their usual rate of interest allowed to depositors is 5 per cent, upon sums over $500. The person who invests directly with Government will receive almost 50 per cent, more. Thus the man who deposits $100 in a private Savings' Bank receives 50 dollars a year interest; if he deposits the same sum in this National Savings' Bank he receives 75 dollars. For those who wish to find a safe, convenient, and profitable means of investing the surplus earnings which they have reserved for their old age or for the benefit of their children, there is nothing which presents so many advantages as this National Loan.

THE HIGHEST MOTIVE.—The war is evidently drawing to a close, but while it lasts the Treasury must have money to meet its costs, and every motive that patriotism can inspire should induce the people to supply its wants without delay. The Government can buy cheaper for cash in hand than on credit. Let us see that its wants are promptly and liberally satisfied.

CHARLESTON. Union Demonstration.

It seems by the Herald's Charleston correspondent that even in the hot bed of secession, love for the old Union still remains. When a small body of colored troops, the first to land in town, marched up the principal street, their officers could scarcely proceed with them, being met with a perfect ovation, men and women thronging the streets, shouting, waving handkerchiefs, and cheering for the stars and stripes, President Lincoln and the Yankee army.

Over 200 pieces of artillery, and immense supplies of ammunition, were found in the forts. It also appears that a similar welcome was extended to Gen. Terry's troops as they marched into Wilmington. Old flags, which had long been hidden away were brought out and given to the breeze waving of handkerchiefs, crowds lined their routes of march, and shouts filled the air.

The entire Union losses, in both killed and wounded in all the operations in Cape Fear river, succeeding the occupation of Fort Fisher, up to, and including the occupation of Wilmington, did not exceed 200 men.

ARMY GUNS.

THE GOVERNMENT has selected out of some forty rifles presented for inspection, the Hammond rifle as the future for the United States service. Mr. Hammond, the inventor, is a mechanic in the factory of the New Haven Arms Company, at Bridgeport, Conn. A Hartford company gives him $10,000 in gold, or its equivalent in cash, $2 on each rifle manufactured, for the patent, and a salary of $2,500 as superintendent of their manufacture.

THE LATEST NEWS.

The steamer Arago reports that when off Charleston harbor on the 25th she was informed that Columbia the capitol of S. C., had been burned.

The officer who brought the intelligence stated that soon after a corps of Sherman's troops had captured the city. The rebel citizens endeavored in every possible manner to harass our troops. While Gen. Slovic's corps was quietly marching through the principal streets to their temporary barracks, a number of citizens poured a deadly fire upon them from the windows and roofs of the houses. The insurrection was beginning to spread when our troops retired a short distance, and subsequently fired the city, which is now in ashes. No further particulars were received.

The news had just been received that Gen. Sherman had marched in force on Augusta and that the enemy at once evacuated the city.

The Herald's Charleston dispatch says: Hundreds of rebel deserters are coming in. They report that Hardee's force had been intercepted by Sherman's troops. All of Sherman's supply vessels had been ordered from Hilton Head to some other point.

WILMINGTON.

Large Amount of Stores Captured.

Baltimore, Feb. 25.

A dispatch from Fortress Monroe announces the occupation of Wilmington by our troops on the morning of the 22d.

On the 23d inst, Gen. Cox pushed to Brunswick River, opposite Wilmington, where bridges were on fire. On his arrival, the rebels began burning cotton and resin in the city, and left it that night. Our captures, including Fort Anderson, amount to about 700 prisoners and thirty guns.

Citizens stated that the rebels burned 1,000 bales of cotton, and 15,000 barrels of resin.

The Union feeling showed itself quite strongly in the city.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent, including gold interest from Nov. which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent, more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other loans. In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Banks, throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

THE DAILY PIONEER
Is issued EVERY MORNING IN THE WEEK (Mondays excepted.)

The Tri-weekly Pioneer
Is issued every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY. And will be found a very convenient issue in all localities which have no daily mail. It contains all the matter (exclusive of advertisements) that appears in the Daily edition.

The Weekly Pioneer
Is the first newspaper issued in Minnesota, and has been printed continuously since 1849. It contains all the news matter of the Daily and Tri-Weekly editions, and is the largest newspaper printed in the State. We shall endeavor, as in the past, to make it especially a FAMILY PAPER, and a welcome visitor to every household. It will contain, in addition to the news of the day, the best selected and original tales, poetry, reviews, and other excellent literary matter. It is in every respect a particular newspaper, and the best, as well as the best in the State.

The General Character of the Pioneer.

The several editions will present a full, faithful and reliable epitome of the latest current news, received through our regular telegraphic reports, correspondence, &c. Especial pains will be bestowed upon Commercial and Market Reports up to the latest hour, and to press. To this will be added a lively interest in local matters, and in everything calculated to promote the material prosperity of our people. The general news news will be published promptly, faithfully and fully, and special attention will be directed to intelligence relating to Minnesota troops in the field giving the latest, most authentic and full information as to their locality and the conduct of officers and soldiers.

Political Affairs.

While the Pioneer will refrain from intemperate and factious opposition to the present Administration, it will fearlessly criticize every act that is deemed subversive of the public good; but it will be in a spirit of candor and moderation designed to excite light and truth, and promote the discussion of sound principles of political economy. We shall endeavor to be fair to all parties, and to expose the evil tendency and corruptions of radical measures and men. In short, we shall aim to make the Pioneer the central organ of the Democratic and conservative sentiment of Minnesota, and being determined to continue in the course we have pursued the past year, we confidently appeal to the Democratic party for their support.

In these days when the party in power is lavish of its benefits to its press, which has become base as it has grown venal, and when the Democratic press is excluded from patronage, it is especially important that the masses of the party should extend a liberal support to its papers. It is indispensable, and it is the business of every patriotic and conservative man of the State. With these views, we regard it as our duty to rely upon Democratic sympathy where to support the local and general press. It must be done, or we must abandon the hope to take our place in the grand roll of Democratic States, which the events of the next two years will inevitably inscribe upon the time-honored banner. Let not Minnesotans be beguiled to pursue the triumph and praise the gain.

BOOK & JOB PRINTING.

Labor, paper and everything which enters into the cost of a newspaper, is so high that we can hope for little profit in their branch of our business, and we therefore particularly solicit.

PROSPECTUS
CHICAGO EVENING JOURNAL
FOR 1865.
Daily, Tri Weekly & Weekly.

The most eventful year in our National history is closing, and a new era, perhaps even more eventful, is about opening. The people of the Northwest, as everywhere, will therefore look to the public newspaper with unusual solicitude for the clear and truthful record of those signal events which all men believe will transpire.

In making our annual announcement to the patrons of THE JOURNAL, we beg leave first to congratulate them on the triumphant success of the cause of the Union in the great Northwest, and throughout the loyal Nation, and the vindication of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln by such unprecedented majorities of the people. As THE JOURNAL in the past has zealously supported that Administration and all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, so shall it maintain that faithful flag of our country waves over it all, the emblem of universal Liberty.

To maintain the Union, to preserve the Republic, to do away with Slavery by any and every means under the Constitution, and cordially to support every man, whether in civil or military commission, who is also laboring in that behalf, is now, and shall ever be, the sacred purpose of THE JOURNAL.

THE CHICAGO JOURNAL
is now EQUAL TO THE BEST NEWS-PAPERS IN THE EAST OR WEST, in the amount of its news and other reading matter. It aims to always give

The Latest News,
By Telegraph or Otherwise, in Advance of all its Western Contemporaries, an object it has attained, in almost every important event of the war. To do this has involved great effort and expense, but has been more than rewarded by a great increase of patrons.

To increase our facilities,

Additional have been made to the corps of Editors, Reporters and Correspondents, and the coming winter it will furnish reliable and early reports from all the capitals of the Northwestern States, as well as from the National Capital.

Our Daily and Weekly
Market Reports are prepared with a view to accuracy and reliability, and are sufficiently comprehensive to meet the wants of buyers and sellers in all departments of trade.

In short, our endeavors, in every department of THE JOURNAL, are directed to the one great object of giving the Western people.

A Sound, Comprehensive and Reliable Newspaper.

While gratefully acknowledging the liberal evidences we have received during the year now closing of the appreciation of the Western reading public, we hazard nothing in promising that our future efforts will be even more worthy of their support.

MOST DIRECT ROUTE
FROM ALL POINTS IN
THE NORTH WEST TO Chicago, Milwaukee, and
ALL POINTS
East and South

The advantages of this route, from all points
in the Upper Mississippi to Chicago and the East, are superior to those offered by any competing line.
No change of Cars is made between Prairie du Chien and Chicago.
The Splendid First Class Steamers of the Prairie du Chien and St. Paul Packet Line, superior to all others on the Upper Mississippi, for speed, comfort, and convenience, making direct connection with Express Trains at Prairie du Chien.
By this route passengers are enabled to reach Chicago as quick as by any other; getting a full night's rest and breakfast on board the steamers,
making the change from Steamers to cars by daylight, and avoiding all Omnibus travel.
The distance from St. Paul to Chicago by this route is 460 miles. The distance on the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad is 462 miles.
Over one mile of Omnibus travel is incurred by taking the route via La Crosse and Milwaukee.
These facts entitle this line to the preference
of the North-Western business.

and Specific remedy for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.
This Medicine increases the power of Digestion
and excites the Absorbents into healthy action,
by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions,
and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced,
as well as Pain and Inflammation.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.
For Weaknesses arising from Excesses, Habits
of Dissipation, Early Indulgence in Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:-
Indisposition to Exercise, Loss of Power, Loss
of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak
Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wake-
fulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot hands, Flushing of the body, Dryness of
Skin, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance,
These symptoms if allowed to go on, which
this medicine invariably removes, soon follows
Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,
In one of which the Patient may expire.
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "lethal Diseases,"
"Insanity and Consumption"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering,
but none will confess the records of the insame
syndromes. And melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The Constitution once affected with Organic Weakness requires the aid of medicine to
strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmhold's Extract Buchu invariably does.
A Trial will convince the most skeptical.

DECLINE OR CHANGE IN LIFE.

Take no more Balm, Mercury or unpleasant
medicines for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.
Helmhold's Extract Buchu and Improved
Rose Wash Cures.

Secret Diseases
In all their stages, in diet, little or no expense, and no exposure.
It causes a frequent desire and gives strength
to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, pre-
venting and curing strictures of the urethra, al-
leviating pain and inflammation, so frequent in
the case of disease, and all other "poisonous"
diseases and worn-out matter.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the victims of Quack Extracts, have found
"fees" to be cured in a short time, have found
they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has
by the use of "honey" and "sugar" been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated
form and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmhold's Ext. Buchu for all affections and diseases of the Urinary Organs
whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating and no matter how long standing.
Diseases of these Organs requires the aid of a diuretic. Helmhold's Extract Buchu is the great Diuretic, and is certain to have the desired
effect in all Diseases for which it is recommended.
Evidence of the most reliable and responsible
character will accompany the medicine.

OUR OLDEST FRIEND.

BY O. W. HOLMES.

I give you the health of the oldest friend
That, short of eternity, earth can lend -
A friend so faithful and tried and true
That nothing can wear him from me and you.

When first we were scorching in the sudden blaze
Of the daylight's blinding and blasting rays,
And gulped at the gaseous, groggy air,
This old, old friend stood waiting there.

And when, with a kind of mortal strife,
We had gasped and choked into breathing life,
He watched by the cradle day and night,
And held our hands till we stood upright.

From gristle and pulp our frames have grown
To stringy muscle and solid bone;
While we were changing, he altered not;
We might forget, but he never forgot.

He came with us to the college class,
Little cared he for the student's pass!
All the rest must pay their fee,
But the grim old dead-head entered free.

He stayed with us while we counted o'er
Four times each of the seasons four;
And with every season, from year to year,
The dear name Classmate he made more dear.

He never leaves us, - he never will,
Till our hands are cold and our hearts are still;
On birthdays, and Christmas, and New-year's too,
He always remembers both me and you.

Every year this faithful friend
His little present is sure to send;
Every year, where'er we be,
He wants a keepsake from you and me.

Now he loves us! he pats our heads,
And, lo! they are gleaming with silver threads;
And he's always begging one lock of hair,
Till our shining crowns have nothing to wear.

When he lies down, but not till then,
Our kind Class-Angel will drop the pen
That writes in the day-book kept above
Our lifelong record of faith and love.

So he's a health in homely rhyme
To our oldest classmate, Father Time!
May our last survivor live to be
As bald, but as wise and tough as he!

THE GLYNTON PINE

BY MIRIAM ALLEN.

The old schoolmaster took a spelling
book from his desk, pushed up his spectacles, and in a loud voice called, 'Mark Thurston, number one!'

A boy with very flashing black eyes walked proudly down the aisle and took his place at the head of the class.
'Rosa McGilverie, number two!' called
the loud voice again.

There was a little confusion on the girls' side, and then a snarl of bright curls appeared from under a desk, a pair
of queer hazel eyes looked up saucily,
and said, 'Did you call me?'

'Take your place!' thundered the school-master. The little girl then came leisurely from her seat, walked to the opposite side of the room, and stood next Mark. 'Look here,' she whispered,
nudging him with her little sharp elbow,
'I am going to be 'number one' to-night,
see if I don't! You will miss, and I'll get above you.'

'I'd like to see you do it!' retorted
Mark, loftily. 'There isn't a girl in the world that can spell so well as I. Girls don't know so much as boys any-how!'

Rosa dared not reply to this smart challenge, for Mr. Jones was looking that way, but she glanced at 'number one,' with such a sneer that the schoolmaster said, 'Mark, is Rosa McGilverie
making up faces at you?'

'No, sir,' replied the boy, that's the way she looks all the time.'

This cutting retort made all the scholars laugh; they did not like Rosa, and were always glad to have her 'brought down,' as they said.

Poor little Rose! Her mother was dead, and no kind friend had yet brought out the tenderness that slept beneath her harsh manner. She was just like that awkward little bush in your garden, all covered with thorns. Only wait till that sweet June sunshine smiles upon it,
and you will see it graceful with delicate
leaves and those lovely fragrant blossoms that all the poets write about. It was early spring with our poor little Rose.
Nobody saw anything but thorns.

She did not seem to mind the scholars
laughing at all, but stood, with a defiant
look, until the master 'restored' order.
Then she entered with her whole heart
into the spelling. She was a bright scholar, all the school acknowledged that.

'You may spell three times around,'
said Mr. Jones; 'I shall not have time to hear you any more than that to-night.
Eyes right and left! Toss on the mark!
Begin!'

Mark spelled with a clear, assured voice
as if to impress Rosa with the impossibility of his failure. But alas for human pride! The third time there came to him that very common word, 'believe.'

Mark had spelled it a hundred times before; he thought he knew it perfectly;
but a glance at Rosa's wicked eyes confused him, and the letters whirled about in his mind. He commenced in an uncertain voice: 'be-be, be-i-e live, be, lieve.'

'Next!' said the master.
Rosa spelled it right, with no shade of triumph in her manner, and modestly took her place above Mark. Then she whispered in the most provoking way,
'Don't you believe I can get above you
now?'

After school, Rosa threw on her little red shawl any way, and ran off alone.
Mark was a favorite, that handsome,
generous boy! She did not want to see the scholars throng about him, as she knew they would, to pity him and blame
her. The lonely little girl ran off as fast as she could go, and at last, quite tired
out, sat down to rest under a great pine tree that grew on the hill. The cool winter air somehow soothed her flushed little face. But she felt unhappy. It was n't quite so fine to be 'number one,' after
all. Poor Mark, how disappointed he looked!

She almost wished he hadn't missed. It was good enough for him, though! He thought girls didn't know anything. Rosa's cheeks flushed at the thought, and she looked very angry.

Just then, a voice spoke, right by her side: 'you can't be 'number one' to-morrow, anyway, Miss. The master says I ought to have had another trial.'

'Just as the A B C class does; poor little fellow! So he should have another trial!' drawled Rosa.

'You are a hateful girl!' cried Mark,
with angry eyes; 'you are horrid homely
and dreadful mean, and nobody likes you.'

Rosa could not bear this. She sprang to her feet and tried to strike the boy's handsome face. He was too tall by far for her to reach. She seized her slate
then, flung it with all her strength against him, and ran away. Mark turned white with rage, but he was too chiv-alous to return the blow. He rushed home in a passion, burst open the kitchen
door and cried, 'Oh, mother, I wish Rosa McGilverie was a boy, so I could give her a good thrashing!'

The angry children little thought how many years would pass before they would meet under the old pine again. That night Rosa was sent to live in another town near by. Better days dawned for the orphan girl. Her new-found aunt,
with whom she was to live, was a gentle,
Christian woman. She, of all others,
was the one to tame the ungoverned child,
and develop her loveliness.

When Rosa next saw Glynton, she was a young lady of eighteen. Her grandmother, who lived in the old village, was quite ill and sent for her. With careful nursing the old lady recovered, and Rosa determined to return to her good aunt.

How differently she felt about leaving Glynton this time. Before, she was like the 'miller of Mansfield.' Now, she was so lovely and gentle that she was a universal favorite. She was beset with invitations from the villagers. 'This is my last day in Glynton,' said she, one morning. 'Where shall I go this afternoon?'

'Here's an invitation to a picnic on the beach, and there's the ride to Cherry Valley, and here's dear Mrs. Thurston's little note, asking me to take tea with her.
I'll go there. I fear she has never quite forgotten me for treating Mark so shamefully, when I was little. Now that she has been at sea so long, his mother adores him more than ever. I must try to have her think better of me.'

Rosa had the consolation of knowing that Mrs. Thurston did think better of her. That evening, as they sat in the garden summer-house, the old lady said
kindly, 'My dear Rosa, do you know how you are changed? You used to be the torment of the whole village. Don't look so sorrowful, dear! You know that you are a comfort to every one that knows you now. I wonder what Mark would say if he could see this little girl that struck him once?'

There was a rustle among the honeysuckle vines that shaded the summerhouse, but why should Mrs. Thurston and Rosa suspect anything but hummingbirds? They did not know that the 'Clammarina' had arrived in New York,
and, of course, would never have guessed
that Mark himself was standing without,
looking with wondering eyes at the young lady beside his mother. 'Can she be Rosa McGilverie?' he thought. 'That snarl of hair changed to lovely curls,
those wicked eyes, so sweet, and dark,
that ugly child transformed to a beauty!'

I can't begin to tell you 'all that was said and done when Mark raised the vines
and exclaimed, in his old, merry voice,
'Good evening, ladies.' Neither do I know just how Rosa asked forgiveness of the young captain as they that night
walked down the hill, past the old pine,
to her grandmother's cottage. I am sure Mark forgave her. All summer workmen were busy on a new ship. It was built all of Glynton timber, and the great vine on the hill was the mainmast. Not long ago, Capt. Thurston took his young wife to the landing to christen the ship.

A roguish look half dried the tears in her dark eyes as she sprinkled bright water over the bows, and called it 'The Glynton Pine.'

Sambo had been whipped for stealing his master's onions. One day he brought in a skunk in his arms. Says he, 'Massa, here's de chap dat steal de onions; whew, smell him breff!'

Why is a baby's mouth like a portion of the heavens? Because it is the wilky way.

ways hungry.

Hugh Hove, Thomas Knott.

As the number of men drawn is double the number of men that are required those last drawn in the list would do well to watch those drawn first, as a matter of self-protection. There are several individuals in this County who have always found business in the direction of Idaho or Canada about the time of previous drafts, leaving to their more patriotic neighbors the whole burden of raising bounty to clear the towns, or to be drafted in their stead; after which these miserable cowards would come sneaking back to enjoy the privileges and protection of the Government that they were unwilling to give any support. We are informed that some of these cowards who have not been seen for several days past are now secreted in their houses awaiting the result of the draft. A little son of one told a schoolmate a day or two since when asked where his father was, that "Father was hid up stairs, but that he was not to tell any one." We hope that the town authorities will look into this matter, and see that none shirk the responsibilities which belong to them and which they owe the communities in which they live.

We would suggest to Marshal Griffin that when he notifies certain slippery customers that he should accompany them in person to St. Paul for fear that they might lose their way this cold weather is allowed to proceed alone.

—Wheat has been coming in to town very plenty for the last few days. It is paid, 80 to 85 cts.

Messrs Faber & Lincolner of this town have bought the Store, Warehouse and fixtures of E. Walton of Carver. prices paid $4000.

—The telegraph wires are down, below St. Paul and no news has been received from the South since Wednesday last.

—Capt. T. D. Smith Quartermaster at Fort Snelling, advertises a sale of 130 condemned Government horses at that post. Commencing Monday, March 29th at 10 A. M.

Saturday Morning March 18th

OUT OF THE DRAFT.

We are informed, unofficially, that the quota of Chaska is filled.

A dwelling house belonging to Charles Basler, in Carver was destroyed by fire on Thursday the 15th inst. The fire caught from the chimney during the absence of both the families, who occupied the house. The building was insured for $250; furniture all saved.

The hostmen are once more busy at work preparing for the opening of navigation, and the indications are, that there will be plenty of water in the river this spring; tho we have no serious apprehensions of an overflow. During the past week, snow storms have been the rule, and pleasant days, the exception, but the sun is shining out again, warm and springlike, and will soon melt the light snows. Wood is being brought in very plenty, and all seem disposed to use the sleighing while it lasts.

Mr. Stone, who was for some time in the employ of Mr. Warner and left but recently, seems well to do in the world, as he has lately drawn a prize worth $500. We presume he will be happy to exhibit it to any who may favor him with a call, and we tender him our congratulations on his good fortune.

We understand the Rail Road Ties for the Valley road between Mendota and Belle Plaine, have nearly all been delivered on the line of the road, and that they are to be laid as soon as the frost is out of the ground in the spring.—Argus.

FIRE AT WINONA.

Winona has been visited by another heavy fire. We learn from a private letter that a fire broke out there on Saturday night, and raged for three or four hours. The buildings burned are principally if not all wooden, situated on Second and Main streets. The Huff House was at one time in imminent danger, but was uninjured. Among the buildings burned was the People's Store. No other particulars.

The Winona Republican of Monday contains an account of the above mentioned fire, which destroyed property to the amount of $50,000. The names of the sufferers, and amount of their losses and insurance are as follows: Mr. G. F. Hubbard, loss $5,000, insurance $2000; Mr. S. Edwards, loss $6000, insurance $2000; S. D. Jackson & Co., loss from $25,000 to $30,000, insurance about $14,000; Thomas Ross, loss $700, insurance $500; Smith, Anger & Lind, loss $3000, insurance $2000; George C. Benton, of Wisconsin, loss $1000, insurance $500; Dr. T. Welch, loss $1200, insurance $850; Mrs. Montgomery, millinery establishment, loss $1000, no insurance. Among other sufferers for small amounts were J. D. Fleischer, K. Helgestein, Mr. Wackeskie, Mr. Carson, James Myers, F. A. Hathorn, and Willis & Smith.

NEW ENROLLMENT BOARD.

Captain See, Provost Marshal of the First District, has been removed, and Ormanzo Allen, Esq., of Austin, Mower county, appointed in his stead. This makes an entire new Board of Enrollment in the First District, composed as follows:

Captain Ormanzo Allen, of Austin, Provost Marshal.

Reuben Reynolds, Esq., of Rochester, Commissioner.

Dr. J. T. Cross, of Rochester, Surgeon.

An amendment to the Indian Appropriation bill, was adopted by Congress, authorizing Indians who have for five years adopted the habits of civilized life, and can speak and read the English language, and who are well disposed toward the Government of the United States, to become citizens, and settle on the public domain under the Homestead law.

A Washington dispatch announces that it is expected Hon. M. S. Wilkinson will succeed Commissioner Dole as Commissioner of Indian Affairs in the Interior Department.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—Another beautiful steel engraving opens the March number of this favorite periodical, just received. The engraving has no title other than the two simple lines—

"Oh, I see them sinking, sinking slowly, Those olden dreams so pure and holy."

The design and execution of this engraving are exquisite. The steel Fashion Plate of this month is a double one, and, as usual, admirably engraved. We need hardly allude to the usual number of wood-engravings, devoted to the illustration of the fashions, &c. The music is "Those Laughing Eyes," a ballad. Among the literary contents we note "Aunt Hester's Story," "A Death Scene," "Tracing Resemblances," "A Story of a Household," "My Angel in Disguise," "Bitten," (a sad story relative to the famous "Mad Stone," of which story the leading facts are declared by the author, a physician's wife, to be true), "Four Birthdays," "Alone, Yet Not Alone," "Passion Flowers," "The Mansion at Lexington," Novelties, Editorials, &c., &c. Price $2.50; 2 copies $4.00; 9 copies $16.00; 21 copies $35.00. Specimen numbers will be sent to those desirous of making up clubs for 15 cts. Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

Now is the time to send on subscriptions for 1865.

HOSTETTER'S.

CELEBRATED Stomach Bitters.

A pure and powerful tonic, corrects and cures of the Stomach, Liver and bowels. Cures Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of spirits, Constipation, Cold, Rheumatism, Fevers, Cramps and Spasms and all Complaints of either Sex arising from bodily weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes. Nothing that is not wholesome and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant but it is a combination of the extracts of various tonic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and so for the human system, can be protected by human means against malice, lies, envenomings and a thousand other evils, which are the result of an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other causes, and which are the result of an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other causes, and which are the result of an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other causes.

In districts infected with Fever and Ague, it has been found useful as a preventive, and is as reliable as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under impression of an attack, escape the disease, and when they are obliged to resort to it, they find its protective qualities in advance are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being supplied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The work of Hostetter is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves Constipation unaccompanied by irregular action of the digestive and rectory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Losses of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bileous Galls is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deceptiveness arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-energize and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is

being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stimulants of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as "Hostetter's Bitters."

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and stores keepers everywhere.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

During the past week we have been favored with but an occasional batch of southern news, but, from all reports, it appears that "things are working", and we can look forward with more hope than ever for a speedy and lasting peace. Gen. Sherman's unobstructed march through the heart of the south shows their utter helplessness to defend their homes, and if unable to do this they are weak indeed. The great event of the week has been the downfall of Gold and consequent decline of prices generally, causing numerous failures among the speculators, and almost a panic in some of the eastern cities. On Tuesday of last week Gold was quoted in New York, at 155 and the same day this week at 159. At Chicago, in one day flour fell 50 to 75 cents per barrel, and wheat 5 to 8 cents per bushel. Mess Pork which sold in the fore part of the packing season for $10, is now offered at $29, and all kinds of provisions have depreciated in nearly the same proportion.

In place of our light snow storms they have been visited with heavy rains, east, and a general thawing out, causing heavy freshets, and in some places doing very great damage. At Rochester N. Y., the water was three feet higher than ever before known, sweeping down some of the principal streets several feet deep and washing away a number of brick buildings by the river side. The New York Central Rail Road bridge is also swept away. Great damage has also been done at Buffalo also along the Ohio River. In Pennsylvania the water has "struck the", and barrels full, and barrels empty are said to be floating down Oil creek.

Gen. Sheridan instead of capturing Lynchburg as reported last week has moved to the north of that place, and Richmond, and is now at White House, the head of navigation on York river where he is receiving supplies and undoubtedly preparing for another grand raid upon the rebels or if necessary to co-operate with Grant against Richmond.

There is no important news from Gen Grant. Gen Sherman was, at last accounts from any reliable source, at Fayetteville N. C. quietly resting his army, preparatory to another march northward, and has doubtless before this occupied Goldsboro, or met the rebels in battle who it is stated were preparing to make a stand at this place. Schofield has united with Sherman, and he will march on stronger than ever, and the rebels must fight soon, and conquer or all will be lost to them.

It seems that Vice President Johnson was not satisfied with his appearance at the Inaugural, but appeared again in the evening at the great hall in a, if possible, more hearty state of intoxication than at that time. We trust that out of respect for the country which he has disgraced he will not presume to occupy the high office which unfortunately has been entrusted to him, but resign at once before a greater disgrace is forced upon us.

Great Freshet in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

We learn there has been a great freshet in Wisconsin, and that considerable damage has been done to the La Crosse Mill-roads. Bridges, and the track in many places, have been carried away. There have been no trains at La Crosse since Sunday, and none are expected for several days. In some places the water is eight feet deep on the track. No stages left La Crosse yesterday, and none will leave to-day.

It is also stated that the bridges between St. Paul and La Crosse have been carried away. If such is the case we may be shut out from the inside world for some time to come. - Wednesday Pioneer.

Chief Justice Chase, in a speech before the Freedmen's Relief Association at Washington, declared for negro suffrage, but for education as preliminary, and preparatory to it.

FROM WASHINGTON.

News from Sheridan and Sherman.

Washington, March 21.—Passengers who arrived to-day from City Point say news from Sheridan reached there Sunday. Two scouts left last week. He had occupied Goldsboro' without opposition, having connected with Schofield. Gen. Sheridan is being supplied at White House with everything he may need for his future movements. The army is still idle.

The Commercial says a war clap will soon be heard at a quarter least expected by friend or foe.

New York, March 21.—The Herald's special says it was reported in Washington yesterday that Jeff. Davis had abdicated the position of President of the Rebel Confederacy, and handed over the reins of the sinking government to General Lee with the understanding that the latter as supreme dictator would make one last desperate effort with such resources as are left within his control. All kinds of provisions are now bringing fabulous prices in Richmond, and every male in the City capable of carrying a musket has been pressed into the army. A cabinet meeting was held at Washington yesterday, at which it was understood that the present condition of affairs at Richmond formed the subject of consideration.

The rebels will make a stand, if at all, at or near Goldsboro'. Johnston having united with Bragg, and large reinforcements having come from Richmond, give a combination with which they hope to defeat Sherman and Schofield combined. If successful, they calculate to return and crush Grant.

FROM NEW YORK.

Panic in Business Circles.

New York, March 15.—There is considerable panic to-day in all the markets and business circles. The Express says there was a general feeling of depression and uneasiness at the produce exchange, which increased at the announcement of failures among the Philadelphia dealers. Flour declined 10a15c; wheat, 5a10c; corn, 2a3c; lard, 1c; butter, 1a2c; pork declined 8a12 1/2; cotton declined 3c. In general merchandise there is a heavy falling off, and in dry goods especially. Cotton fabrics are lower. The gold operators are in trouble, and eight or ten firms have failed—among them Thomas F. Warner, Canasie & Cayman and J. F. Merriman. Two large firms in the butter trade have gone up.

Execution of a Bounty Jumper at City Point.

Correspondence New York Tribune.

CITY POINT, March 11, 1865.—Wm. T. Griffin, a deserter within our lines, and a bounty jumper, was executed by shooting, at City Point, yesterday. He had formerly belonged to a New York battery, and subsequently to the 8th Delaware regiment from which he deserted a short time ago. Returning to City Point soon after, as an unassigned substitute, having pocketed a large bounty, he was recognized by an officer of the 8th Delaware, and arrested.

After the reading of his sentence on the occasion of his execution he made a few remarks stating that he was "in for it, and that it could not be helped." He said that he was not yet twenty-one years of age; that $30,000 was coming to him from his grandfather on his arrival at that age, and that he had offered the Government this sum for his release, but had not been successful. He closed by mockingly saying that he died for his country.

He died "game," as the saying is, declining to have his eyes bandaged, and sitting coolly on the foot of his coffin facing the fire of the squad detailed to carry into effect the execution. He was shot through and through, and died instantly, falling back into his coffin, which was open behind him.

From the Frontier.

Gen. Sibley has received advices from Fort Wadsworth of date of March 4th, and from Fort Abercrombie to the 10th. They contain no news of importance. The heavy snow storms were still continuing and driving the buffalo in vast numbers, were within a few miles of Fort Wadsworth. No hostile demonstrations on the part of the Indians were reported. Those that followed the buffalo were peacefully hunting.

CONCLUSION OF EXCHANGES.—A RETURNED PRISONER.

We received a call yesterday from Lieut. A. W. Tiffany, of Carver County, a member of Co. H, Ninth Minnesota. He was captured by the rebels last June, while on the disastrous Sturgis' Expedition, and at the same time that so many of our Minnesota men fell into the hands of the Philistines. The officers and men were separated, the former going to Macon, and the latter to Andersonville. The horrors of Andersonville have become familiar to our readers, and they will be glad to know that those who have survived its terrors have been released. A list which we publish elsewhere, comprises we believe, the last of the Minnesota exchanged or paroled prisoners. At all events, it has been announced that all have been returned on parole, and those not already declared exchanged, soon will be.

The mortality has been fearful. Lieut. Tiffany's company had twenty-six men captured, of which number only eight are now alive. Co. G, of the Ninth, lost a Sergeant and sixteen men, and the Sergeant alone returns to tell the horrors of rebel prisons.

Of the mortality in the other companies, Lieut. Tiffany is not informed. He was retained at Macon for two months after his capture, when he was sent to Charleston with a number of other officers, where they were confined in buildings exposed to the fire of our batteries. The prompt retaliation of Gen. Foster, it will be remembered, occasioned their relief, but not until they had been exposed to the fire for two months, and had escaped a great many "close shots."

Their next removal was to Columbia, where they remained four months longer. There were twelve hundred officers at this point, and at first they were crowded in an open field about two miles from the city, with nothing but a guard to prevent their escape. Many very naturally improved the opportunity, and took their departure, until the matter became so general that they were removed to the city and placed in a stockade. From the time of their going to Columbia until their return to our lines, they received no meat, except what they purchased at fabulous prices. Two days before the arrival of Sherman they were sent to Charlotte in great haste. The rash from Columbia was tremendous, and they were delayed one day by the female passengers.

After a delay of a few days at Charlotte, they proceeded to Goldsboro, and from thence to Wilmington and Annapolis. Lieut. Tiffany's statement agrees with that of thousands of others concerning the brutality of the rebels, some specimens of which we publish elsewhere. At Goldsboro over a hundred poor fellows who were at the point of death were laid out in an open field with no shelter or blankets, and left there to die. The general feeling among the rebel soldiers is one of discouragement and depression, and at Charlotte one of them expressed his desire to have an opportunity to shoot Jeff. Davis. The terrible effects of war are visible throughout the whole South, and the reward for their ferocity is being justly visited upon them. St. Paul Press, 22nd

NEWS ITEMS.

A Cairo dispatch states that over two million dollars worth of property has been destroyed at Eastport, Mississippi, by a flood in the Tennessee river. The steamer Postboy was blown up on the Mississippi river, twenty-five miles above New Orleans, on the 5th inst., by the explosion of her boiler. Two passengers were killed.

A farmer in Wethersfield, Connecticut, who owns a large tract of land, raised last year, seventeen thousand dollars worth of onion seeds, the profit from which was fourteen thousand dollars. He produced besides, a large quantity of potatoes and other vegetables.

The New York papers complain because of an evident combination among butchers and drovers to raise the price of meat, when gold is steadily going down and prices of commodities falling in proportion.

Brigham Young is perfectly neutral. In a recent sermon he said: "The North prays that their swords may strike into the heart of every rebel, and I say, Amen! And the South prays that the North may be cut down on a thousand battle fields, and again I say, Amen!"

It is said that Jackson Haines, the only professional skater which America or indeed any other country so far as we know has yet produced, has made $15,000 by his skating feats at London, and has gone to Paris at the request of the Emperor. Haines uses parlor skates when he cannot get ice.

A telegraph messenger boy in Newport recently shed out of the water at a small package, which contained a fine gold watch in good order and still running, the inside being perfectly dry.

A private letter from Paris says that George B. McClellan still has his cards printed "Major General McClellan."

Special pains will be bestowed upon Commercial and Market Reports, up to the moment we go to press. To this will be added a lively interest in local matters, and in everything calculated to promote the material prosperity of our people. The general army news will be published promptly, faithfully and fully, and especial attention will be directed to intelligence relating to Minnesota troops in the field giving the latest, most authentic and detailed information as to their locality and the conduct of officers and soldiers.

Political Affairs.

While the Pioneer will refrain from intemperate and factitious opposition to the present Administration, it will fearlessly criticize every act that is deemed subversive of the public good; but it will be in a spirit of candor and moderation designed to evolve light and truth, and promote the diffusion of sound principles of political economy. We shall advocate at all times "Democratic Principles and Democratic men," and expose the evil tendency and corruptions of radical measures and men. In short, we shall aim to make the Pioneer the central organ of the Democratic and conservative sentiment of Minnesota; and being determined to continue in the course we have pursued the past year, we confidently appeal to the Democracy for their support.

In these days when the party in power is lavish of its benefits to its press, which has become base as it has grown venal, and when the Democratic press is excluded from patronage, it is especially important that the masses of the party should extend a liberal support to its papers. It is indispensable, and it is the business of every patriotic and conservative man of the State. With these views, we regard it a duty to enjoin upon Democrats everywhere to support the local and central press. It must be done, or we must abandon the hope to take our place in the grand roll of Democratic States, which the events of the next two years will inevitably inscribe upon the time-honored banner. Let not Minnesota be laggard to pursue the triumph and partake the gale.

FOR 1865.

Daily, Tri-Weekly & Weekly.

The most eventful year in our National history is closing, and a new era, perhaps even more eventful, is about opening. The people of the Northwest, as everywhere, will therefore look to the public newspaper with unusual solicitude for the clear and truthful record of those signal events which all men believe will transpire.

In making our annual announcement to the patrons of THE JOURNAL, we beg leave first to congratulate them on the triumphant success of the cause of the Union in the great Northwest, and throughout the loyal Nation, and the vindication of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln by such unprecedented majorities of the people. As THE JOURNAL in the past has zealously supported that Administration and all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, so shall it maintain that faith until the flag of our country waves over it all, the emblem of universal Liberty.— To maintain the Union, to preserve the Republic, to do away with Slavery by any and every means under the Constitution, and cordially to support every man, whether in civil or military commission, who is also laboring in that behalf, is now, and shall ever be, the sacred purpose of THE JOURNAL.

is now EQUAL TO THE BEST NEWSPAPERS IN THE EAST OR WEST, in the amount of its news and other reading matter. It aims to always give

The Latest News.
By Telegraph or Otherwise, in Advance of all its Western Contemporaries, an object it has attained, in almost every important event of the war. To do this has involved great effort and expense, but has been more than rewarded by a great increase of patrons.

To increase our facilities,
A New Four Cylinder Power Press.

of more than double the capacity of its predecessor, has been added to our office the past year.
Additions have been made to the corps of Editors, Reporters and Correspondents, and the coming winter it will furnish reliable and early reports from all the capitals of the Northwestern States, as well as from the National Capital.

Our Daily and Weekly
Market Reports are prepared with a view to accuracy and reliability, and are sufficiently comprehensive to meet the wants of buyers and sellers in all departments of trade.

In short, our endeavors in every department of THE JOURNAL, are directed to the one great object of giving the Western people:
A Sound, Comprehensive and Reliable Newspaper.

While gratefully acknowledging the liberal gratuities we have received during the year now closing, of the appreciation of the Western reading public, we hazard nothing in promising that our future efforts will be even more worthy of their support.

TERMS—Payable in Advance.
